

JUDGE L. W. BETHURUM

In this issue is found the announcement of Judge L. W. Bethurum of Rockcastle County, for the Republican Nomination for the office of Auditor of Public Accounts, subject to the action of the Republican Party in the State Convention to be held in Louisville July 11, 1911. The editor of the SIGNAL is personally acquainted with Judge Bethurum and has known him intimately all of his life, and is familiar with his public record, which is commendable and worth of emulation.

He was born and reared in this county and principally educated in the public schools here, but attended Highland College, Williamsburg, Ky., and Brown's Institute of Valparaiso, Indiana; taught school, studied law, graduating in the class of 1897, from the University of Louisville, Law Department. He then began the practice, forming a partnership with his brother, Hon. B. J. Bethurum, now Circuit Judge of the 23rd, Judicial District. He was elected County Attorney of this County in 1901, and served one term. Nominated by the Republican party of this county without opposition for County Judge in 1905 and elected, again nominated and elected, now serving his second term.

He is a vigorous advocate of the cause of the party he represents, and in this section of the State his name is synonymous with Republicanism. He has taken a active part in the interest of his party in every campaign since he has been a voter. At present he is a member of the Republican State Central Committee from the 8th Congressional District.

When his party demands his service, without faltering, or without cavil, he goes to battle for its principles. In 1906 his party nominated him as its standard bearer for Congress, in this, the 8th, Congressional District of Kentucky. Although defeated the district being Democratic, his race was so creditable that his party in 1908, without his consent and unsolicited, nominated him again for the same office. The canvass he made was so thorough, vigorous and persistent, that he greatly reduced the Democratic majority, carrying the counties of Madison and Garrard by good majorities, and his own county, appreciating the honor conferred upon a worthy son, gave him the unprecedented majority of over 900. The result of his canvass was applauded by the leaders of his party and the Republican newspapers of the State. The Lexington Leader said: "The result in the Eighth District is especially gratifying, the personal popularity and intelligent canvass made by Judge L. W. Bethurum, the Republican nominee, greatly reducing the Democratic majority of his opponents, Harvey Holm." These two sacrifices made for his party meant not only loss of time from his business and hard labor, but a large expenditure of money, but in response to the call to duty the time and labor were freely given and his money spent for the cause without a murmur.

His qualifications cannot be questioned. As a member of the Bar of Kentucky, he is recognized by his fellow associates and the people as a lawyer of eminent ability, cautious and painstaking. As a Judge he enjoys the distinction of being perfectly fair and impartial, rendering unto all, the rich and the poor alike, equal and exact justice. His decisions have shown capacity, legal research and wisdom as a lawyer and a judge.

Under his administration as County Judge, of this county, much progress has been made looking to the betterment of conditions generally, and especially in the matter of public improvements. He is enthusiastic on the subject of better roads and the strong sentiment in this county now for better roads, is largely due to his efforts. Besides his endeavors have been along the line of promoting and advancing the moral, commercial and intellectual welfare of this county and this section of the State.

The voters of this Commonwealth may rest assured that if Judge Bethurum is nominated and elected to the great and responsible office of Auditor of Public Accounts of this State that he will faithfully and honestly discharge the trust reposed in him with the fearlessness characteristic of him alone; that his treatment of the people having business in said office will be that of an affable and courteous gentleman, which he is.

MT. VERNON SIGNAL
Mt. Vernon, Ky.

Gents:—

Your copy of the SIGNAL, giving an account of the "Boosters" reception in your town to hand this morning. Being of the "Gang" I wish to compliment the people of Mt. Vernon on the welcome we received there by your good people and which was highly appreciated by every "Booster" and I cannot refrain from complimenting the SIGNAL for the enterprise shown in getting out such an appropriate and live edition for the special occasion.

Mt. Vernon will no longer be a "dead town" but with the enterprise shown in our reception will forge to the front as a live wire. Trusting to see the consummation of your brightest hope, I am

Yours truly,

Mr. Jones Fish,
Mt. Vernon Ky.

Dear Sir:—

I regret exceedingly that the shortness of our visit to Mt. Vernon, did not give me the opportunity of meeting you when our "Boosters" visited your city.

I had the great pleasure of meeting Mr. Fish Jr., and I hope to have the opportunity of renewing our acquaintance, early and often.

We were met splendidly wherever we went, but you may be assured that the short visit which we made to your city is hedged about with so many pleasant recollections that the next time that we visit Mt. Vernon, we intend to remain at least a half a day, unless you find it necessary to call out the Militia to run us out of the City, before we capture all of the pretty and most attractive girls of whom you have so many.

Be assured that we enjoyed your hospitality, and your cordial greeting so much, that we feel impelled to call Mt. Vernon a part of Louisville, providing you do not yourself object.

With kindest regards, and hoping to reciprocate your attentions at an early date,

I remain,
Yours truly,
JACOB J. BLUM.

THINGS THAT WERE NOT
AND WERE IN 1877.
AND SOME THAT ARE TO-DAY.
(By J. M.)

In the year 1877 when the writer located in Mt. Vernon there were three pianos in town. There are forty to-day. The town boasted of two buggies and one carriage. The latter was made in 1849 and was originally the property of Dr. J. Joplin a noted practitioner, the father of J. L. Joplin. Not a typewriter or telephone was here. Safety razors were absent. Not a foot of concrete sidewalk, and but a few feet of brick sidewalk, some plank and flat stone pavements and dirt. Only three brick houses in town. The old horse mill, on the lot where Tom Proctor now lives, had only disappeared a few years before. Not a traction engine or separator (thresher) in the county. Ground hog machines were in general use. The sewing machine agent, calendar clock men and lightening rod agents were reaping a harvest. The wrought iron range people soon followed selling an ordinary range at $64 which sells today at $20. Some dwellings were equipped with rods that cost the owner more than the building was worth. No newspaper or printing press was here. It was ten years later when the Mountain Signal was established, the same paper you are now reading, which has been published continuously since with a few changes in editors and managers. Among its editors were the writer, W. R. Cress, J. W. Brown, E. B. Smith and the present owner. It was first issued on an army press, being inked by a hand roller. In its early days the paper had a correspondent at most every post office in the county. One writer we recall was at Culpeper, way down on Skaggs creek, who yet goes by name of old "Cull". He did some wonderful writing. Roller skates had not made their appearance; pool tables ditto. No regular barber shop, though John W. Brown did practice hair cutting on many victims of whom the writer was one to his everlasting sorrow. McCalls tan yard on the branch lot near residence of late D. N. Williams, had been abandoned but a few years before. Many of the vats were yet in fair condition. Traces of the McCalls powder mill were still here. Just a little later the oil fever came up and parties from Pennsylvania leased thousands of acres in county but no operations were started. Stave companies and others later butchered and wasted millions of feet of good timber throughout the county. Tan bark men did the same with chestnut timber which was left to rot after removing the bark, the timber having no market value in those days. It was a few years later when a Bedford, Ind., teacher took a position in one of our schools. He was a fair geologist, and after being here awhile he predicted that Rockcastle wealth laid in her vast beds of stone and other minerals. A few listened, while a majority hooted at the idea. That teacher is yet a citizen of this town, and is a prominent physician has lived to see his predictions well on their way to fulfillment by the stone, lime, clay and sand industries that are constantly growing and promise at no distant day to bring great wealth to the county of his adoption. That was before the day of automobiles and none was owned in this county until 33 years later. No bicycle had invaded this community and when it came it was of the pattern that had a "big wheel" and a little one which did stunts almost equal to the bucking bronco. But few could hang onto the thing. It usually pitched its victims in the ditch. Ask Bob Joplin.

The gasoline engine, that provoking, yet useful machine, was unknown and none came to the county until 25 years later. The nearest thing to it was a hot air engine used for a time in pumping water at railroad tank, Livingston while that place was the terminus of this branch of L. & N. Perpetual motion was worked at by several citizens who thought at times they had made the long looked for discovery. One or two machines were so well balanced they would run for some hours but of course no power was gained. Some good men died in the belief that the thing was feasible.

At that time many droves of hogs were fattened on the mast (acorns) which were in abundance before the great woodlands were destroyed by the woodmans ax. It was not many years before this time when many hundreds of swine were driven to this county from the bluegrass country to take advantage of the mast. Rockcastle then made her own bacon and had it to sell by wagon loads to the citizens of the counties to the north of us, much of it in exchange for flour. Chicago and other points today is furnishing probably one third or more of the meat consumed in the county. Even the roast of our beefsteaks come from the city by the lake. In those earlier days he had to hitch his horse in to assist in the grinding. Where West Mt. Vernon is located, West of Willis Griffin's residence were corn fields on both sides of road. Lime was burnt by piling stones on log heaps then firing. To-day we have kilns built on scientific principles. The colored population here numbered probably twenty within town limits. Limits have since been extended but the number remains about the same. Citizens of other nationality were represented by less than twenty throughout the county. The town had one church building, of two stories. The Masons occupied the upstairs. Two other churches have since built edifices. The common school and a private academy represented the school facilities. A Collegiate institute was established a quarter of a century later which was later absorbed by the Brown Memorial school which has proven very successful. A graded school came into existence thirty four years after the celebration of the centennial of our independence and is proving a good institution. In Spring and Summer of 1880 Prof. R. L. Garner, a noted correspondent, taught classes in penmanship in Whitehead Academy (the building now the residence of Mrs. D. N. Williams). Prof. Garner afterward gained world wide fame by his African trips where he dwelt in the fastness of the wilderness among wild animals, he occupied an iron cage at night, in his attempts to learn and prove that simians have a spoken language. He claims to have learned half a dozen or more of their words and proved by his "monkey talk" at different Zoo gardens that he could please the little animals or scare them into fits by using utterances in chimpanzee lore. Many of our people remember the Professor. It was in the early 80's that a citizen of Rockcastle, Eugene Snodgrass, was sent as a christian missionary to Tokio, Japan where he spent many years in the work. The uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea has made it a favorite everywhere. It can always be depended upon. For sale by Chas. C. Davis.

Just before total eclipse of the sun in 1879, astronomers were sent out by the government from Washington, who made observations from apex of Town Hill 1535 feet above sea level. They placed a stone tablet at the hill top with proper inscription thereon filled with lead. This tablet later disappeared; supposed to have been taken by some vandal for the lead it contained. A year after the centennial of America Independence there was not a cultivator or two row corn planter in the county. There were a few iron cane mills and lots of wooden ones whose screeches could be heard a mile and a half when in operation. The horse mill had passed in its check. The power used to grind corn was run by horses, when a person went to mill

A violent wind and hail storm caused big damage throughout parts of Southern Indiana and Northern Kentucky Monday afternoon.

"I Suffered Intense Pains in My Left Side."

Do you realize it is better to be safe than sorry, that it is the best policy to lock the stable door before the horse is stolen?

Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy cured Mrs. C. C. Gokey, of a stubborn case of heart disease, such as thousands are now suffering with. Read what she says:

"Before I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy I had been suffering from heart trouble for over five years. I had grown so weak that it was impossible for me to do thirty minutes work in a whole day. I suffered intense pains in my left side and under the left shoulder blade. I could not sleep on the left side, and was so short of breath that I thought I should never be able to take a full breath again. The least excitement would bring on the most distressing palpitation. I had scarcely taken a half-bottle of the Heart Remedy before I could see a marked change in my condition. I began to sleep well, had a good appetite, and improved so rapidly that when I had taken six bottles I was completely cured."

MRS. C. C. GOKEY, Northfield, Vt.

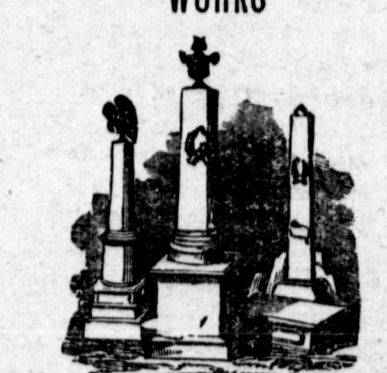

If you have any of the symptoms Mrs. Gokey mentions, it is your duty to protect yourself.

Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy is what you need. If the first bottle fails to benefit, your money is returned. Ask your druggist.

In this issue appears a call for a vote on June 24th, on the question of issuing bonds to the amount of $6,000 for the Mt. Vernon Graded school, which money is to be used in paying for the present building and for making some additions, which are absolutely necessary.

With the levy as it is, only enough money was collected last year to pay the running expense of the school and the board is therefore compelled to make other provisions for the payment of the building and for the providing of additional room which is absolutely necessary, in order to accommodate the school. These bonds are payable in 20 years and the board figures that a 15 cents levy will provide sufficient money to pay the interest and a sinking fund which in the 20 years will pay off the indebtedness. To make a long story short, if the voters do not vote the bonds, the success of the school will be practically destroyed for with the number of pupils in the district, the present building is not sufficient and it is utterly out of the question to expect more from the present income of revenue than to just pay the teachers. The people are urged to consider the matter carefully before acting.

There is always something doing at Fish's Clothing Store.

SPLENDID FINALS OF BROWN MEMORIAL SCHOOL.

The exercise of the first annual commencement of Brown Memorial High School were opened with the Baccalaureate sermon on "The Sanctification of the Secular Life" last Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church, by Rev. Geo. S. Watson.

The entertainment of the undergraduates on Tuesday night was not only bright but well worked up and the costuming was in keeping with the characters represented.

The "Mock Commencement" made decidedly the hit of the evening. This feature was especially timely as brought out by Miss Daisy Fish in her Salutatory for Brown Memorial High school had never had a commencement before and the undergraduates felt the necessity of showing the seniors how things ought to be done. The oration of Miss Mary Napier on "The Autobiography of a Microbe" and Miss Winnie Falin's oration on "Life" afforded much amusement to the crowd. Also Miss Rae Hunt's Presentation of the Diplomas and other clever features of the program kept the people in laughter.

The Kindergarten circle Spring Song Drill held on the lawn of the Dormitory Wednesday afternoon, were attended by a large and appreciative crowd who had come to witness the many drills, songs and games of Miss Maxwell's well trained little "Kindergartners" who thoroughly captivated the hearts of the crowd.

The Domestic Science exhibition in one of the rooms attracted much attention. The dainty and appetizing dishes and tempting morsels as well as the fine pieces of needlework gave evidence that at Brown Memorial this year they have been learning other important things besides reading and writing and arithmetic.

The Piano recital of Miss Claudia Dodson's pupils Wednesday night was very decidedly a success. Many people were impressed with the splendid progress made by the pupils this year under the efficient teaching of Miss Dodson, whose ability as a musician and as a teacher is recognized by all in the community.

The commencement exercises of the Brown Memorial High School held last night in the Presbyterian church were the crowning event of the week. The three graduates Misses Frances Forber, Clyde Watson and Blanche Crawford, who are the first ones in the history of the school to be honored with diplomas of the B. M. H. S. all read essays of a high order.

The commencement address, on education was delivered by Dean A. H. Thorckmorton, of Central Universe Law School, whose strong and inspirational address showed him to be a real champion of Kentucky cause for higher education.

The Diplomas were presented by Atty. C. C. Williams with a short but most appropriate talk.

There was no part of the program of greater interest to the people of Mt. Vernon than the remarks by Miss McCord, and especially when she announced that the school would be made a permanent institution and that the $3000 paid by the Graded School would be re invested in a building in Mt. Vernon.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

The Fountain Head of Life Is The Stomach

A man who has a weak and impaired stomach and who does not properly digest his food will soon find that his blood has become weak and impoverished, and that his whole body is improperly and insufficiently nourished.

DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY makes the stomach strong, promotes the flow of digestive juices, restores the lost appetite, makes assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver and purifies and enriches the blood. It is the great blood-maker, flesh-builder and restorative nerve tonic. It makes men strong in body, active in mind and cool in judgment.

This "Discovery" is a pure, glyceric extract of American medical roots, absolutely free from alcohol and all injurious, habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients are printed on its wrapper. It has no relationship with secret nostrums. Its every ingredient is endorsed by the leaders in all the schools of medicine. Don't accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this time-proven remedy of known composition. Ask your neighbors. They must know of many cures made by it during past 40 years, right in your own neighborhood. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

Blood Was Wrong

All women, who suffer from the aches and pains, due to female ailments, are urged to try Cardui, the reliable, scientific, tonic remedy, for women. Cardui acts promptly, yet gently, and without bad effects, on the womanly system, relieving pain, building up strength, regulating the system, and toning up the nerves. During the past half century, thousands of ladies have written to tell of the quick curative results they obtained, from the use of this well-known medicine.

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Jane Calahan suffered from womanly trouble for nearly ten years. In a letter from Whiteville, N. C., she says: "I was not able to do my own housework. My stomach was weak, and my blood was wrong. I had back-ache, and was very weak. I tried several doctors, but they did me no good. I used Cardui for 3 or 4 months, and now I am in the best health I have ever been. I can never praise Cardui enough." It is the best tonic, for women.

Whether seriously sick, or simply weak, try Cardui.
